

Featuring... Huntsville Community Chorus

Chamber
Chorale
&
The Huntsville
Chamber Winds

... with special guest artists

Alvy Powell
Bass-Baritone

Staff Sergeant Alvy Powell is a bass-baritone in the U.S. Army Band. His performance of Porgy in the New York City Opera production of Porgy and Bess was nominated for an Emmy Award for "Best Classical Music Production." He is a soloist with the U.S. Army Chorus and has sung at The White House on several occasions. His recent performance at HSO's Gershwin Concert this April was absolutely spectacular.

& Hunter Thomas
Bassoon

Huntsville Symphony Orchestra's Hunter Thomas performing the Andriessen Bassoon Concertino.

SOMETHING
Old
New Borrowed
BLUE

Huntsville Community Chorus – Chamber Chorale and the Huntsville Chamber Winds bring another brilliant collaborative event – Something Old, New, Borrowed, and Blue. Don't miss this opportunity to hear some of Huntsville's finest vocal and wind musicians perform a stunning variety of chamber music, plus a few surprises.

Don't miss this great event!

Concert is Free!

Donations will be accepted
to help support both Chamber groups.

Friday, August 27, 2010

7:00 PM

First Baptist Church Sanctuary

600 Governor's Drive

(Donations Accepted)

Information: 256.533.6606

www.TheChorus.org